In works made in digital technique, it must be submitted in JPG or TIFF format with a minimum resolution of 300 dpi. per miah@iqh.es, and it is recommended to send a printed and signed copy, with the copy number (e.g.: Copy 1 of X).

It is essential to stick to the dates indicated for the proper planning of the catalogue and the design of the exhibition.

5.- Works sent by post must be sent suitably packed. It is recommended to protect them with two flat cartons, and the organization is not responsible for any damage caused in transport. The shipping costs will be borne by the people who participate in this call, and the organization will not assume any expense (for example, customs costs) or any liability in case of deterioration or loss of the work.

6.- A commission will make a selection among the works received that will be exhibited at the XXXIII International Exhibition of the Arts of Humor of the University of Alcalá to be held between September and November 2026 in Alcalá de Henares.

7.- The works presented will become part of the collections of the Quevedo Institute of the Arts of Humour of the General Foundation of the University of Alcalá, unless expressly indicated otherwise, for which the word "Return" must be written on the back of the work.

8.- Sending the work implies that the author authorizes the General Foundation of the University of Alcalá to reproduce and disseminate it, provided that his or her name appears and the objective is the dissemination of the Exhibition and other activities of the FGUA in the field of humor, without generating any obligation of any kind before the author.

9.- The organization will communicate, electronically, the receipt of the works and their selection, publishing this last list on its website iqh.es.

10.- The authors whose work has been selected will receive a copy of the publication that will be published on the occasion of the celebration of the Exhibition.

11.- The organization reserves the right not to exhibit those works that it considers to violate individual or collective rights.

12.- The participants will be responsible for the originality of the works in the event of any claim, holding the organization harmless from any infringement of rights or intellectual property of the same.

13.- Participation in the Exhibition implies acceptance of these rules and the waiver of any legal claim, and the responsibility for the works falls on their authors.
